

The Prayers, ending with The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing
Hymn

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy,
be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.
Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
be there at our labours, and give us, we pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.
Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.
Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Welcome - By Reverend Tony Brooks, Chaplain at Hull Royal Infirmary

Opening Hymn

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Even for His own Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,

Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou art with me; and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling place shall be.

Psalm 23 (Crimond)

Poem - Memories - read by the Lord Mayor, Councillor Steve Wilson

Bible Reading and Address by Reverend Tony Brookes

The Act of Remembrance

The Reading of the Names of Those Lost on Our Roads (during the reading of Names, "The Long Adieu" composed and played by Charles Timberlake with orchestral arrangement by John Daniels, will play as a musical memorial to road crash victims. A wreath will also be laid at our permanent Memorial at the Transport Museum in Hull and a candle will be lit in memory of all the loved one).

Hymn

And did those feet in ancient time walk upon England's mountain green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
on England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
among these dark satanic mills?
Bring me my bow of burning gold!
bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
'til we have built Jerusalem
in England's green and pleasant land.

William Blake (1757-1827)
